TREASURY PORTFOLIO

Lyman J. Gage of Chicago Has Accepted It.

CONFERENCE WITH MR. MCKINLEY.

Mr. Gage Makes the Announcement Himself at the McKinley Home—Congressman Wilson Has the Lead For the Navy. All the Positions Not Yet Filled—The Selections Will Soon Be Made.

CANTON, O., Jan. 29.—At 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening, Lyman J. Gage, president of the First National bank of Chicago, emerged from the dining room of the McKinley home to fill an appointment with the Associated Press, and special correspondents, to tell them the result of his conference with Major McKinley.

"Mr. McKinley offered me the treasury portfolio. I told him I would accept the high honor and fill the position to the best of my ability."

This was the first utterance of the incoming secretary of the treasury on being presented to the party.

Mr. Gage reached Canton about 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, his train being belated by cold and snow. With him was National Committeeman Cyrus Leland of Kansas.

The McKinley conveyance was in waiting and the visitors were hurried over the snow-covered streets to the McKinley home from which no hint of what was transpiring within came until dinner had been served, and Mr. Gage stepped into the office-library and addressed himself as quoted above. Beyond this he had little to say. He declined to discuss any feature of the policy of the incoming administration or to discuss any matter other than that relating to himself.

He said there was no ground for the publication that he was a gold Democrat during the campaign and that his only affiliation with the Democratic party was in 1884 when he voted for Cleveland. He also said that he and Major McKinley substantially agreed on the tariff questions.

The guests at dinner last night besides Mr. Gage were National Committeeman Leland of Kansas, ex-Governor Cornell and Colonel J. J. McCook of New York, the latter a leading attorney; W. C. Beer of the National Security company of New York and General Osborne, the secretary of the national committee.

President-elect McKinley said, in speaking of the cabinet, that, although all of the positions had not been filled, the end was in sight. It is understood upon excellent authority that the portfolio of agriculture has as yet been offered to no one.

From outside sources it is learned Congressman Wilson now has the lead for the navy. He will probably be named, as he is agreeable to both factions of the party in New York.

New York insists on having the navy portfolio as her portion. Long of Massachusetts, who has been on cabinet slates for the navy, will likely get another portfolio—probably that of war.

Alger will be in the cabinet, a friend of McKinley says.

WHO IS LYMAN J. GAGE?

Brief Historical Sketch of McKinley's Secretary of the Treasury.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Word comes from Canton that Lyman J. Gage of this city has been selected by President-elect McKinley for secretary of the treasury in his cabinet. To those who are not acquainted with Mr. Gage's career the following brief history will just now prove of interest to the general reader: Lyman J. Gage was born at Derby, Madison county, N. Y., June 28, 1836.

His parents, who were both born in the state of New York, were of English stock. When Lyman J. was 10 years of age his parents moved to Rome, N. Y., where he entered the Rome academy where he remained four years, the term he spent in that school practically constituting his entire school education. His first position in business life was as a clerk in the Rome postoffice and after leaving there he became a route agent on the Rome and Watertown railroad. In 1854 he secured a position in the Oneida Central bank of Rome at a salary of $100 per year and remained with the bank 18 months.

He came to Chicago in the fall of 1855 and was engaged as a bookkeeper by a lumber firm. His duties as bookkeeper, however, comprised the driving of one of the teams belonging to the firm, and loading and unloading lumber. He also acted for a time as night watchman. While he was thus engaged he was offered the position of bookkeeper of the Merchants' Saving, Loan and Trust company, and this was the actual beginning of his career as a banker.

In the spring of 1860 he had worked his way up to the position of assistant cashier, and later to that of cashier, which he held till 1868, when he left the Merchants' Saving, Loan and Trust company to accept a similar position with the First National bank, with which institution he has been identified until the present time.

The old charter of the bank expired in 1882, and upon its reorganization he was chosen vice president and general manager. About this time his financial ability was paid a high compliment by his election to the presidency of the American Bankers' association. On Jan. 24, 1891, he was elected president of the First National bank, and still holds that position.

He was prominent in all of the work that made the world's fair a great success, and was one of the four men, J. J. P. O'Dell, Wirt Dexter and J. W. Doane, being the others, who practically guaranteed that Chicago would carry out its pledge of raising $10,000,000 for the building of the fair. He was for a time president of the local board of directors, but upon his election to the presidency of the bank he was compelled to resign this office. He refused any remuneration for all the time he had spent as president of the local world's fair directors, although a handsome salary had been voted for the position.

Mr. Gage has been twice married, his first wife being Miss Sarah Etheridge of Little Falls, N. Y., whom he married in 1864. She died in 1874, and in 1887 he married Cornelia Gage of Denver.

He is a member of the Commercial and Union League clubs of this city, and personally is a very popular man. He is democratic in his manners, pleasant and affable, and is easy of approach at all times.

COLD WEATHER IN THE SOUTH.

It Is the Most Severe of the Winter and Is Quite General.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Reports to the Associated Press from the South Atlantic states show the present cold snap to be the most severe of the winter and quite general from Virginia to Florida. At Danville, Newport News, Petersburg, Roanoke and Norfolk, Va., the temperature ranged from 6 degrees to 20. Snow lays over the state to a depth of from two to six inches. Ice has formed on most of the streams.

From Norfolk the statement is received that the storm was very severe on the bay. Lookouts on incoming vessels reported the cold as intense. Life-savers along the beach also report a terrible night as they patrolled the coast. The temperature has dropped to 14 degrees, with chilling northwest winds.

Throughout Georgia and North and South Carolina the weather is dry and cold, the thermometer ranging from 10 degrees to 25 as a maximum.

Jacksonville, Fla., reports that the cold last night throughout northern Florida was the most intense since February, 1895. Across the northern counties from Jacksonville to Pensacola, the thermometer ranged generally from 20 to 24 degrees going here and there as low as 17. Frost in lesser degree was felt as far south as Titusville on the east coast and Tampa on the west.

Reports from the districts devoted to the orange culture indicate that, except in the more exposed situations, little injury has been done. Not sufficient sap was in the wood to cause material danger. The losses of the truck farmers in the Gainesville district will be more severe. A considerable percentage of the growing lettuce, beets and cabbage has been killed, but no close estimate can yet be formed.

HOME RULE FOR CUBA.

Negotiations Going on Between Spain and the United States.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Madrid says that negotiations are actively proceeding between Spain and the United States, secretary Olney acting as intermediary for Cuba. Spain has submitted the Cuban home rule project. The new autonomy program gives Cuba two legislative chambers, and reserves to the island the power to initiate all tariff and revenue bills, Cuba paying an equitable share of the expenses of the Spanish army and navy. The governor general is to have full power to appoint all subordinates. It is claimed that Cuba will accept the provisions if assured of the protection of the United States government and of the sincerity of Spain.

Nothing but Independence.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Referring to the report that Spain is about to concede a home rule measure to the Cuban insurgents, Tomas Estrada Palma of the Cuban junta said: "Unconditional and absolute independence is all that Cuba will ever accept from the government of Spain. If she can not have it she prefers extermination. It is scarcely worth while to discuss a home rule proposition. It has not been made, and if it should be, it will receive no consideration at our hands."

Censorship Dispatches.

HAVANA, Jan. 29.—Captain General Weyler recently left Manquito, in the province of Matanzas, and marched in a southerly direction to Cienfuegos and Villa Clara, where he will establish his headquarters.

The report that the insurgents succeeded in landing an expedition well supplied with arms and ammunition at La Caleta, near Puenta Maisa, is confirmed.

Ivory Sails For Home.

QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 29.—Edward J. Ivory of New York who was recently acquitted in London of the charge of conspiring to cause a dynamite explosion; John F. McIntyre, who acted as Ivory's counsel and the three American witnesses in the case, Patrick Wynne, Patrick A. O'Rourke and Thomas Smythe, sailed for New York yesterday on the steamer Majestic.

SENATORS SELECTED.

One in Idaho and Another in Washington.

BOTH OF THEM AS POPULISTS.

Henry Heitfield, an Idaho Farmer, Chosen to Succeed Senator Dubois—George F. Turner of Spokane Will Succeed Senator Squire—Six Ballots Fall to Make a Selection in South Dakota.

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 29.—Henry Heitfield, Populist, was yesterday elected United States senator to succeed Senator Dubois. The vote stood: Heitfield, 36; Dubois, 30; T. F. Nelson, 1. Fourteen Democrats joined the Populists for Heitfield and he also received the vote of the single Republican member. Four Democrats went to Dubois.

In the campaign the Democrats and Populists entered into a fusion, under which the Populists were to have the congressman and senator.

The Democrats refused to endorse any man named by the Populist caucus for senator. Judge W. H. Claggett was overwhelmingly the choice of the Populists but the Democrats would not vote for him in sufficient numbers to elect him. Finally, on Tuesday night, Claggett had his friends nominate Heitfield. There were 13 Democrats ready by this time to vote for most any Populist except Claggett. When the Democratic caucus was held Wednesday morning it resolved to support Heitfield but there was such loud talk of a bolt that the purpose was abandoned.

Wednesday night the matter was fixed up, the 13 Democrats pledging their votes to Heitfield and the deal was closed. Three Populists bolted, but they were gotten back yesterday morning and Heitfield secured his full party strength. When the rollcall had been finished, and before any change had been made, it was seen that Heitfield had 35, one less than a majority. Then Mr. Fenn, the only gold Republican elected to the legislature changed his vote from Fisher to Heitfield.

Dubois appeared before the joint assembly at an adjourned session in the afternoon. He thanked his friends for the fight they had made and counselled them to go to work vigorously to enact good laws for the state.

Henry Heitfield is a man of limited education. He was born in St. Louis, January, 1859. His father, Henry Heitfield, was of German birth. The future Idaho senator attended the common schools of St. Louis until 1870, when, with his mother, he moved to Seneca, Kan. He lived there until 1882, being employed at farmwork and learning the trade of stonemason. In 1882 Mr. Heitfield moved to the northwest, locating at Pomeroy, Wash. For a time he worked in the shops of the Northern Pacific railroad at Sprague, Wash., remaining there until the fall of 1883, when he became a resident of Nez Perces county, Ida. Since that time he has been engaged as a farmer, fruit-grower and cattleman.

In politics Mr. Heitfield was a Democrat until he joined the Populist party. He is a member of the Farmers' Alliance, and it was through his connection with that organization that he was influenced to ally himself with the Populist party. He was elected to the state senate as a Populist in 1894 and again in 1896.

George F. Turner to Succeed Senator Squire OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 29.—George F. Turner of Spokane was last night nominated for United States senator in a caucus of Populists and free silver Republicans. He received 54 votes. Judge Turner has been a Republican, but at the late election supported Bryan. He is considered one of the ablest lawyers in the state of Washington. From 1884 to 1888 he was territorial governor. Within the last two years he has become largely interested in mines in northern Washington and British Columbia.

No Selection Made in South Dakota.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 29.—Six ballots were taken in the Populist senatorial caucus last night. An attempt to spring a compromise candidate in the person of H. H. Potter failed. On the last ballot Kyle had 80 votes and all the others about the same as before. Potter received only one.

IT LOOKS LIKE NEVADA.

The Bill to Permit Prize Fighting Has Passed the General Assembly.

CARSON, Nev., Jan. 29.—The bill to permit prize fighting has passed the senate by a vote of 9 to 6, and the town is all excitement in consequence. The bill was not enrolled to be presented to the governor, but it will reach him as soon as it is.

The bill as passed provides that a glove contest with gloves not lighter than four ounces may be held in Nevada upon the payment to the sheriff of the county in which the contest is to take place of $1,000 for a license, and the presentation of a certificate from two regular physicians that the contestants are in perfect physical health. This shall be done 10 hours previous to the contest. Nine-tenths of the license money goes into the state treasury and the balance to the county where the contest takes place.

Of the bill W. H. Wheelock, Dan Stuart's partner, who has been on the ground some time, said in response to a question whether or not the big fight would positively take place in Nevada, if the governor signs the bill:

"I can not say that the big fight will or will not take place in Nevada. The bill, if signed, is satisfactory to me and

I presume it will be to Mr. Stuart. I am sure did we conclude to bring the world's championship contest to this state, ample protection from any kind of interference is guaranteed under this measure. Official morality is of a different type here than in Texas or Arkansas."

Dan Stuart's Next Move.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—A private dispatch received from Dan Stuart by L. M. Houseman says that he will at once notify the principals in the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to be prepared to fight in the state of Nevada on the 17th of March. Stuart says that he is not prepared at the present time to name the exact location of the fight, but in the course of the next 10 or 15 days he will announce the town where the event is to be pulled off.

FIRE ENGINE CAME TOO LATE.

Almost the Entire Business Portion of a Village Burned.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 29.—Fire destroyed almost the entire business portion of the town of Centerburg, 50 miles north of Columbus, on the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus railway yesterday. Columbus sent the assistance of a part of its fire department, but it arrived too late to do much good.

The property destroyed was as follows: H. S. Smith, grocery; A. W. Hawkins & Company, dry goods; W. Sterra, clothing; John Harvey, meats; Sol A. Wright, restaurant; W. A. Jacobs, bakery; G. W. Bonark, undertaker; the Armstrong business block, Dr. C. S. Lewis' residence.

The fire started in the basement of Sterra's clothing store. Its origin is not known. The total loss is $75,000. Most of the property was poorly covered by insurance.

Fatal Fire in Michigan.

BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 29.—The Van Emster block, a frame building two stories high, was gutted by fire shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Theodore Daring, aged 68 years, unmarried, who occupied one of the rooms, was smothered. Florentine J. Van Emster, the pioneer druggist of the city, was terribly burned about the head and will die. Mrs. Van Emster and four young daughters and her mother and a sister were rescued by passersby. The property loss is small.

Lack of Water Pressure.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 29.—The wholesale grocery of Leavitt, McConnell & Company in the Schultz block was destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire was caused by a heater in the basement. Adjoining buildings were damaged, but saved by the fire department. Firemen claim there was a lack of water pressure. Losses were as follows: Leavitt, McConnell & Company, $50,000; insurance, $20,000; Emil Schultz, $25,000; insurance, $10,000; Eddy & Johnson, $500; insured.

Fire Flugs Frozen.

CANTON, O., Jan. 29.—Fire partially destroyed the building of Jacob Motter. Loss $1,200. Frozen fire plugs endangered the adjacent property and a bad conflagration was threatened until the chemical engines came to the rescue.

FAMINE IN INDIA.

A Bad Condition of Affairs Exists in the Solapore District.

SOLAPORE, Jan. 29.—The special correspondent of the Associated Press, who is visiting this district, finds it badly affected. The scarcity of food is most severely felt at Talukas, Sangola, Marda and Karmala. Solapore city is the center of the weaving industry and its inhabitants are suffering from the stoppage of work at the mills. It is estimated that three-fourths of the whole number of weavers are already out of work and 40,000 persons throughout the district are being relieved.

No cases of cholera, however, have been recorded in the camp at Ekrents, five miles from here, specially laid out for the weavers who are employed in the light work of improving the reservoir, which was built during the last famine. Only 3,000 men, however, are employed, as the Mohammedan weavers remain idle in the city, living on their savings. They will not accept manual labor until compelled to do so.

The correspondent traversed several irrigated Jouganiwi fields, which promise splendid crops, and met a number of traveling bands of people in search of work. Returning to the city the correspondent arrived at the poorhouse in time to see doles given out to over 300 poor people, the halt, maimed or blind. Each person relieved received a mess of meat and a modicum of oil, salt and chillies.

There were many children suffering from optholma and groups of lepers were noticed. Taken as a whole the Solapore district is in a bad condition, which will probably become worse as time passes.

The Plague's Ravages.

BOMBAY, Jan. 29.—According to the official report just issued there has been 4,396 cases of the plague in Bombay and 3,275 deaths from that disease. At Karachi 696 cases and 644 deaths from the plague have been recorded. At Poona there have been 65 cases and 60 deaths, and a few cases have occurred at Surat, Baroda, Ahmadabad, Kathianwar and Cutch.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Jan. 29.—Joseph Boxwell, 25, shot Oro Bortherton, 16, in the temple and then shot himself to death at Dundee. The girl was fatally hurt. Boxwell, who was formerly a clerk for Miss Bortherton's father, fell desperately in love with the girl. He annoyed her so that he was discharged. The Borthertons are among the wealthiest people in the county.

IMMIGRATION LAWS.

How They Have Been Changed by the Bill Just Passed.

FOREIGNERS MUST COME TO STAY.

It May Cause Canada to Lose a Million of Her Population—Many Mexicans Will Be Affected—Immigrants From Poland, Hungary, Alsace and Lorraine Will Be Barred From Entering the United States.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The amendment to the new immigration law which was proposed by Representative Corliss at the request of the labor unions will have the effect of largely depopulating the Dominion of Canada. It provides that no foreigners may come into the United States and obtain temporary employment. If they come at all, they must come to stay, and take out naturalization papers.

This will apply directly, and was no doubt intended to do so, to about one million Canadians, men, women and girls, who are regularly employed for a part of each year in the factories of New York and New England. The daughters of a family will come down and work for a few months, and then go home to look after the household, while their places are taken by their mothers or sisters. Thus they migrate back and forth, the whole family spending half the year in the United States and the other half in Canada.

The same is true to a less extent of lumbermen on the border, both in the maritime provinces and in the northwest. Wages being so much higher in the United States than in the Dominion of Canada, the lumbermen, like factory hands, come over to seek employment, leaving their families at home, and returning to them at the end of the season. Rather than lose this employment, a large majority of these people will give up their homes and remain permanently in the United States.

Many Italians come to this country seeking temporary employment. They work a few years and then go home and live comfortably upon their savings for the rest of their lives.

The new law will apply also to thousands of Mexicans along the Rio Grande who have temporary employment upon the railroads and ranches in the United States.

It provides that an emigrant to be admitted to the ports of the United States must be able to read and write the English language or the language of the country from which he comes. If strictly applied this provision will shut out all immigrants from Poland, Hungary and the German provinces of Alsace and Lorraine. Although the latter provinces were captured by Germany during the war of 1871, and are an integral part of the German empire, the inhabitants speak nothing but French, and German being the language of the country from which they come, they could not be admitted as emigrants into the United States. Hungary is a part of Austria, where the language is German, but the Hungarians have a tongue of their own. Poland is a part of Russia, but the Poles have retained their own language and literature. Nevertheless, under a strict construction of the new law, no Pole can be admitted into the United States unless he is able to read and write Russian, and no Hungarian unless he can read and write German.

ELEVATED RAILWAY COLLISION.

Six People Injured in New York City, Two Perhaps Fatally.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—As the result of a misplaced switch an engine drawing a train of empty cars collided with a loaded passenger train on the Brooklyn elevated railway last night, and six persons were injured, two perhaps fatally. The engine and the forward car on the loaded train toppled over into the street, 20 feet below. There were but four passengers in the derailed car, three of whom were injured. Following is a list of the injured:

Engineer Thomas Gaffney, compound fracture of the skull; has since died.

Fireman Herman Heath, legs mangled; will probably die.

Engineer Albert Brown, scalp wound and broken arm.

Julius Hanberry, injury to spine.

Andrew Dondario, cuts on face and head and injury to arm.

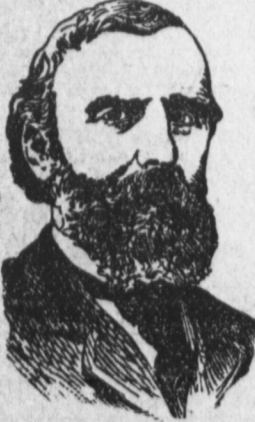

To Abolish Convict Labor.

LAPORTE, Ind., Jan. 29.—Steps have been taken in this state to unite the labor organizations of Ohio and Indiana in a movement to secure the abolishment of the convict labor system. A monster petition will be circulated. It is believed that the union of employers and employes in the two states will bring an influence to bear that will result in a change in the method of employing the state's charges. The movement has the endorsement of organized labor in this whole section.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 29.—The steamer Plankinshaw sank near the mouth of Green river. The 17 people on board scrambled to an open barge the boat was towing and drifted down the river past this city. The barge went ashore two miles below here. Engineer John Orr of Evansville was drowned. The others suffered considerably from the cold weather and several were badly frozen. The loss on the boat is $5,000.

Declared a Draw.

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Jan. 29.—The fight between Dick Burge and Eddie Connolly for $5,000, which took place at the Olympic club here last night, was declared a draw in the 11th round.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY (?)

The Dayton Journal is one of the staunch Republican papers of Ohio. Its proprietors are the sons of the late Major Bickham, and one of them was a member of the staff of McKinley when he was Governor. Following is a recent editorial:

"Well, if Governor Bushnell thinks himself really a Senatorial sort of a man, he can go ahead and enjoy that egotism. He certainly is not a Senatorial sort of stuff that his State is accustomed to. Imagine Bushnell's name being connected with Grant, Tecumseh Sherman, John Sherman, Chase, Benjamin Harrison, R. B. Hayes, James A. Garfield and innumerable other great men. Imagine him for instance up against Major McKinley or Mark Hanna, or say Charley Grosvener; even ex-Governor Foraker could give that 'pinkapook,' that is the Governor of the State of Ohio, pointers. Think of the Lieutenant Governor appointing Bushnell in preference to Hanna, a really great man. Ohio has a habit of making Presidents, but not of endorsing Zanesville tools to a great end. Does not Governor Bushnell know that he was simply the tool of politicians after a great end? Does he think that he is a great man? What right has he to ask himself to be appointed to a position in which he is not wanted, and one which he cannot fill?"

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

It's in order for some of the knowing ones to explain how the inauguration of Mr. McKinley may be expected to help the farming class and make times any better.

It isn't men that will make times any better, as measures alone can accomplish the herculean task. And such measures as the Republicans propose will retard instead of advance such times.

Times won't even be any better for Wall street after McKinley's inauguration, for they are just to the taste of that thoroughfare already, and no change is asked for from that delectable quarter.

Banks will fail right along, and hard times will continue their rule, even though McKinley be inducted into office as Chief Executive; for no one can see that his election has helped matters in the least.

Had Mr. Bryan been elected instead of McKinley, and all the bank failures followed in the wake, what a howl of "I told you so" would have gone up all over the land from those who have been bawling out that good times were at hand.

Wonder when that international monetary conference may be looked for, about which we were regaled when the outcome of the election was in doubt? We suppose that question may be considered tabled for sometime to come, as the gentlemen in charge of affairs are not in as promising a mood as erstwhile they were.

Fear is one of the strangest influences in human life. Professor G. S. Hall of Clark university has been collecting facts concerning the fears of children. The fears of children, he says, are generally created by parents. Professor Hall found that 1,701 children had 6,546 fears, the leading ones being the fear of lightning and thunder, reptiles, strangers, the dark, death, domestic animals, disease, wild animals, water, ghosts, insects, rats and mice, robbers, high winds, etc. A few of these fears are rational. In New Jersey no children were found to be afraid of high winds, but in the west that fear naturally leads all others. At Trenton, however, 62 children were found who dreaded the end of the world, a fear created entirely by adult teaching. At Cambridge, Mass., only 155 out of 500 boys were afraid of thunderstorms, and only 230 out of 500 girls. The fear of robbers and of wild animals is a survival, though robbers have not disappeared as completely as the wild animals.

UNIFY AND STRENGTHEN.

Advice Given by the Democratic State Central Committee to County Committees.

LEXINGTON, Ky., January 21, '97.

To Democratic County and Legislative District Committees: The resolution passed by the Central Committee indicated a custom as old as the party, but it was not promulgated as a rule or as an absolute standard to govern you in your local affairs. Conditions are now exceptional and require different methods of treatment in different localities.

You are expected to study the situation and do what is wise and best to unify and strengthen the Democratic party in your district. It is the privilege and responsibility of county committees to do this, and you who achieve the best results consistent with the principles and purposes of our party, will furnish the best indication of the line of action that ought to be pursued by the Central and Executive Committees when they meet to deal with matters pertaining to State campaigns.

I will be glad to advise with you as to questions about which you may be in doubt, and will co-operate to make your committees representative of the energy, courage and intelligence of your people, but you must understand that you are responsible for the management of party affairs within your jurisdiction and that success is one of the most convincing evidences of merit. Respectfully;

P. P. JOHNSTON,

Chairman, Dem. State Central and Ex. Committees.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill street, South Gardiner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had lung trouble, following typhoid malaria, and he spent $375 with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work, a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for lung trouble. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. M. Davis has returned from his trip East.

—Mr. F. J. Ginn, Traveling Auditor of the C. and O., was here last night.

—Mr. William Dudley, of Flemingsburg, spent Thursday here with friends.

—Judge Harbeson was in town this morning en route home from Vanceburg.

—Mr. S. A. Conn, the Winchester lumberman, was here Thursday on business.

—Mr. P. N. Bradford, of Aberdeen, accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Herndon, to Louisville this week.

—Miss Mary McDowell Marshall has returned from a visit of some weeks to her brother, Mr. John Marshall, in the county.

—Mr. Terence Hedrick and sisters, Misses Maggie and May, of Helena Station, are visiting the family of Mr. Michael Collins.

—Squire L. M. Collis, of Orangeburg, returned Thursday from North Liberty, O., where he attended the funeral of his son-in-law, the late Henry Wilson.

—Mrs. Litter and daughter, and Miss Scruggs, of Fleming County, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hixson, of the Washington neighborhood.

—Mrs. Sallie McD. Humphreys is spending some time with her niece, Mrs. Bettie M. Finch, at the beautiful and elegant country place of the latter near Helena.

—Messrs. J. T. Kackley and Tuze Willett have returned from Chicago. Mr. K. says we have been having nice, pleasant weather here compared with the twenty-below-zero article at the Windy City.

Same View.

[Chicago Times-Herald.]

Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, announces that he will not accept a place in the McKinley cabinet. It is only fair to add that this has been Major McKinley's view of the matter all along.

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? The intelligent physician will know that it is some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs. The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription exerts a wonderful power over woman's delicate organism. It is an invigorating tonic and is specific for the peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and painful derangements of woman. Careless, easy-going doctors frequently treat their women patients for biliousness, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver or kidney troubles, when the real sickness is in the organs distinctly feminine, and no help can come till they are made perfectly strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

He was twenty-eight years old and was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Crow, of Grant street. Funeral will take place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Burial at Washington.

DOVER News: "Deputy Sheriff Sam Perrine was in Dover Tuesday notifying numerous property holders of this precinct of the 'raise' in their assessment, and requesting them to meet and have a little confab with the 'powers that be' on February 8. From the length of the list it would be economy to charter a steamboat on that day."

FRED HINES, aged twenty-two, died last night at 8 o'clock, of consumption, at the home of his father, Mr. David Hines, on Second street, west of Wall. The funeral occurs this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence with services by Rev. F. W. Harrop. The remains will be taken to South Manchester to-morrow morning for interment near that place. A little child of the deceased died two weeks ago and a sister died a year or two ago of the same disease. His wife survives him.

The Quaker Crimped Crust Bread Pan

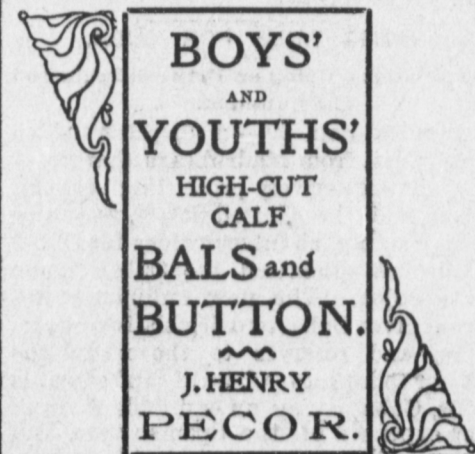

Gives more bread from a given amount of flour than any other pan. And it is sweeter, better bread—moist inside, rich brown outside, and never burnt. It can't burn. The steam in the pan won't let the bread burn. It is more nutritious, and will keep longer than any other bread without becoming stale.

An Indiana Man Wants to Hear From His Long Lost Brother.

Some weeks ago the Secretary of the Masonic Lodge at Sardis received this letter:

BAINBRIDGE, PUTNAM COUNTY, IND. }
December 22nd, 1896.

To the Honorable Lodge of Freemasons of Sardis, Ky.—Sirs: Will you please inform me if a person named George Whitfield Reed, or George Reed, is a member of your Lodge, and at what date did he join?

I had a brother G. W. Reed that about 1858-9 lived at Sardis. He lived perhaps with a friend. If you know this friend, was he a Colonel in Rebel Army? If so, is he alive? Do you know if said Reed is dead, and where he died? I heard he was a Mason; if so, it must be at Sardis. Your answer will oblige his brother, with thanks. CHALMERS REED.

KENTUCKY

Has Furnished Governors, Senators and Other Leading Men For Many States.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says if Virginia is to be called the mother of Presidents, Kentucky may as well be called the mother of Governors.

Ever since the early days of the century Kentucky has not only kept her own list of statesmen full, but has supplied several other States with officials and representatives in both branches in Congress.

She even went so far as to furnish a Vice President for the United States four years ago in the person of Adli E. Stevenson, after lending him to Illinois a while.

She also furnished the two men, John M. Palmer and Shelby M. Cullum, who now represent the State of Illinois in the United States Senate, besides Missouri's own Senator Vest.

In like manner the Bluegrass State has gone on in an unpretentious manner furnishing statesmen for other States for nearly a century and of the twenty-nine Governors of Missouri, all except two of three were natives of Kentucky.

For example, every Governor since Charles H. Hardin, elected in 1874, was a Kentuckian, with the exception of Albert P. Morehouse, who finished the unexpired term of Gov. Marmaduke, elected in 1884, who died in office.

Kentucky became a State in 1792, and had been a member of the Union twenty-eight years when Missouri was admitted August 10, 1821.

It was at the home of such sturdy pioneers as Daniel Boone, and when the "Great West," as the country on the shady side of the Mississippi river was then called, commenced to open up after the Louisiana purchase in 1803, Boone and many others, filled with a spirit of adventure, crossed the river and became settlers in the territory now known as Missouri. These men and those who followed them then became the ruling spirits in the new country they had helped to develop, and many of them were honored with positions of responsibility.

River News.

The Gate City is laid up at Ashland.

The Ruth is in a harbor at Marietta.

The ferry Lurance is still making occasional trips.

The Commercial Tribune stated Thursday that there wasn't a boat turning a wheel between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. The C. T. was mistaken. There hasn't been a day yet when Captain Phister's staunch ferry Lurance didn't make several trips.

A writer in the Ironton Register says the only way to preserve and maintain the river trade is for the steamboat managers to cater to the passenger traffic. Secure the passengers, and the freight will follow. He says at present the steamboat companies do not seem to want the passenger patronage, and strive only for the freight. This should be reversed. He says fast boats should be built, to carry only passengers and such light freight and express goods as go through from one end of the route to the other. They should be run on schedule time, and then the boats would get the river trade and hold it, as they now do on the Hudson river, with railroads on each bank.

Burrows-Flowers.

Quite a surprise to their friends, Miss Jennie L. Burrows, of East Front street, and Mr. Edgar W. Flowers, of Huntington, W. Va., were quietly married at the residence of Rev. J. S. Sims yesterday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Burrows. The groom is an engineer on the C. and O. Road.

The couple left shortly after the ceremony for Cincinnati. They will be at home to their friends at 1312 Russell street, Covington, after February 1st. The best wishes of their friends go with them.

J. C. LAUGHLIN and F. C. Riese, of Augusta, were married Wednesday by Rev. J. A. Lee, of Covington. The groom is a brother of Robert Laughlin, who was hung at Brooksville two weeks ago, and he went to Covington to have the ceremony performed by the minister who was so attentive to his brother.

PROFESSOR HICKS in his predictions for this month said: "A sharp cold wave will show its head in the northwest about that day"—the 18th. After describing the causes and the kind of weather likely to follow he adds: "We should say the disturbances of this period will reach their crisis about Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the 23d, 24th and 25th, the last days named especially bringing gales, blizzards and cold wave."

THE forthcoming publication of the "Autobiographies and Letters" of Gibbon, the historian, in their original form, after being sealed up for one hundred years, is a literary event of rare interest. For the first time the world now has the seven autobiographic studies of the historian exactly as he wrote them. Mr. Frederic Harrison, the eminent English critic, reviews the new memoirs in the February Forum.

MARRIED AT MAYSBLICK.

Nuptials of Mr. Eli Pogue and Miss Scott Laytham Solemnized Thursday Afternoon.

Mr. Eli Pogue and Miss Scott Laytham were married Thursday afternoon at Mayslick, the Christian Church being the scene of the happy nuptials. The newly wedded left shortly after the ceremony for Cincinnati where they will spend a few days in the enjoyment of their honeymoon.

The young couple belong to two of the county's old and highly esteemed families, the groom being the youngest son of the late Frank Pogue, while the bride is a daughter of Mr. Anthony Laytham.

Their many friends join in congratulations and good wishes.

THE news from Deputy Collector Baldwin is more encouraging. He spent a comfortable night, and was resting well this morning.

MR. AND MRS. E. H. NESBITT are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine eleven-pound son at their home on Forest avenue this morning.

A SENSATION was caused at Lexington when it became known that J. Walter Peak, Congressman Owens' right bower, and Mrs. Joe McCann were married some time ago. Mrs. McCann secured a divorce from Joe McCann, a well known farmer, a few months ago, and Peak was the chief witness. They were married soon after the divorce, and were to keep the marriage a secret for six months. The father of Mrs. McCann "got on," and Mr. and Mrs. Peak left for Chattanooga. Mrs. McCann left two children with her father.

DOVER NEWS: "Another candidate for County Attorney is in the field. Mr. Frank P. O'Donnell's announcement for that office appears in this paper. Mr. O'Donnell made the race for the office in 1894, and after receiving the nomination was defeated at the polls by a few votes, along with almost the entire Democratic county ticket that year. His friends have prevailed upon him to again enter the race, and propose to elect him if nominated. He is an able young lawyer, and will do honor to the office and the party."

REFERRING to Mr. John C. Lovel's candidacy for County Clerk the Dover News says: "Mr. Lovel has had four years' experience as Deputy Clerk under ex-County Clerk T. M. Pearce, and is qualified to fill the office satisfactorily. He favored the single gold standard at the beginning of the campaign last year, but when the convention declared in favor of bi-metalism he was the first to grasp this editor's hand and say, 'I am with the party—I am a Democrat.' He has many warm friends throughout the county."

ENCOURAGED by my largely increased business of the past year, and in order to meet the largely increasing demands of my trade, I have taken advantage of the great depression in business throughout the country, which has been the cause of forcing large quantities of the most desirable goods in my line on the market at extremely low prices, and bought for cash the largest, cleanest and most attractive stock of goods ever offered to the people of this city. Therefore I am in condition to offer to cash and prompt paying customers the greatest bargains ever offered to the trade and at the same time give them the very best class of goods. My stock consists of every article and much more than can be found in many strictly first-class houses in the country, consisting of Staple and Fancy Groceries and Canned Goods, best Sugar-cured Hams and Breakfast Bacon, Flour of various brands—Buckwheat Flour, Graham Flour, Entire Wheat Flour, Wheaties;

NOW FOR '97.

pure Maple Syrup, the best brands of Pickles, Snider's Catsup and Chili Sauce, pure Cream Cheese, Fruits, both green and dried, of all kinds; in fact, every article that can be named and at prices that knock out all competition. My house is headquarters for Poultry, Game and Oysters in season, always fresh and tempting, and when you want the best cakes and bread don't fail to buy my Perfection Flour—it is always the best; and my Blend Coffee has no equal. Watch for my Specials, and don't fail to take advantage of them. I want country people when in our city to make my house headquarters; you are always welcome. And don't forget that I run two wagons regular and will deliver all goods promptly. If you can't come, telephone No. 83, and your wants will be attended to. Thanking all for the very liberal patronage of the past, I hope, by fair dealing and prompt and polite attention to the wants of the public, to merit a continuance of same.

A List of Reforms.

That progressive journal, The Outlook of New York, asks its readers to help forward several reforms during the present year. Among them are the following:

Adequate support of the American flag and adequate protection to American life and property on foreign soil.

A financial system which will provide a currency increasing with the increase of population and of business, and so substantial in its foundation as to inspire confidence and credit at home and abroad.

Taxation adjusted according to the possessions and incomes, not according to the expenditures, of the persons taxed and levied on corporations at the same valuations of property as on individuals.

Municipal ownership of all "natural monopolies." In lieu of such ownership, no franchises granted for more than one generation.

Reform of the primaries, so that the people shall nominate the candidates as well as elect them.

A direct practical recognition and adoption of the referendum and the initiative in state and municipal politics.

In manufacturing centers and great cities, adequate homes for workmen, with free access to pure water and bright sunshine—no dark bedrooms, no unventilated halls, no basement living rooms, no rear tenements.

Co-operation of all denominations in home missionary and foreign missionary work. No fighting of Christians among themselves. All Christian forces joined to fight the world, the flesh and the devil.

Absolute freedom of discussion of all ethical, biblical and theological topics within the church of Christ. No turning reverent souls out to carry on their discussions outside the church.

Nobody will be inclined to urge strenuous objections to most of these reforms, and the consummation of some of them is devoutly to be wished. The list is fairly comprehensive, but it might be extended—for instance, an effective law against iniquitous trusts by prohibiting and declaring void all contracts preventing free competition as well as all combinations between persons and corporations designed to advance, reduce or control prices.

MANCHESTER, O., Jan. 29.—David Pennywitt, 77, while getting a bucket of coal, became chilled and returned to the house and died of heart failure within 10 minutes. He was the father of Captain H. W. Pennywitt, well known in Cincinnati.

Mud wasps manifest great ingenuity not only in building their nests, but in placing them in localities where they will not be injured by rain or predaceous animals.

For over 400 years every Parthian king bore the name of Arsaces in addition to his own.

GERMAN KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS WIN.

The Indiana Supreme Court Reverses the Decision of a Lower Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 29.—The supreme court has reversed the judgment obtained by the Grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias against Koerner lodge No. 6 of this city, depriving it of its property, because it had adopted a resolution to secede from the Knights of Pythias and form a lodge of the Indiana Zeitung Bund. Koerner lodge was composed of Germans, who transacted all their business in German.

In 1892 the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, of the world, passed a law requiring that all rituals printed in the German language should be surrendered by the lodges that had been using them and that the rituals thereafter used should be printed only in the English language. The members of the Koerner lodge took this as a personal affront and threatened to withdraw from the order. Before the lodge met again, the janitor of the hall took the charter from the hall and delivered it to the grand keeper of records and seal, but at the next meeting of the lodge, after it had been opened, the minutes of the last meeting were corrected, so as not to show the violent action taken before. The grand lodge claimed that the adoption of the resolution to secede worked a dissolution of the lodge.

RESULT OF THE COFFEE WAR.

The Product Sold in New York at Less Than Cost.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Arbuckles and sugar trust fight in the coffee market has been carried into the retail market. After the Havemeyers bought the Woolson Spice company's plant at Toledo, O., a month ago, arrangements were made to throw a large quantity of coffee on to the market at a price below wholesale rates.

The effect of it was seen Tuesday, when the department stores in New York and Brooklyn offered one brand at 16 cents a pound, which is about 5 cents less than the usual retail price, and 2 cents less than the regular wholesale price. It is said that before night 10,000 packages had been sold in New York and 6,000 in Brooklyn.

This was not only a blow at the Arbuckles, but a severe one at the coffee retailers, and the latter felt aggrieved because the Havemeyers had cut into that trade by placing coffee in department stores at a less price than they can buy it. They threaten to join the Arbuckles in the fight.

Death From Cold and Hunger.

JACKSON, O., Jan. 29.—A most distressing case of death from cold and hunger is reported from Wellston. Two small children of Mr. and Mrs. James Piercefield are lying dead at their home in that city, and it is said they had had nothing to eat for several days and that there was no fire and bedding in the house to keep them alive. They were aged 3 and 5 years. Piercefield is a miner and is badly crippled as a result of a mine accident some time ago.

Retired Army Officer Dead.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 29.—Surgeon General McParlin, U. S. A., died here yesterday afternoon at an advanced age. During the late war he was surgeon general of the Army of the Potomac. He leaves four daughters, one of whom resides in Peru.

An Expensive Murder Trial.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 29.—The costs of the prosecution of the Albert Frantz murder trial were paid by the state yesterday. The whole amount is $2,325.28. This includes the transportation of the prisoner to the prison annex.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

The House Passes One Appropriation Bill and Takes Up Another.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The house passed the Indian appropriation bill yesterday, and entered upon the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill, but all interest in these two measures was overshadowed by two very remarkable speeches, one made by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, attacking ex-Governor Altgeld of Illinois, and the other by Mr. De Armond of Missouri, heaping ridicule on Secretary McIvor for the recent issue of a pamphlet entitled "The Farmers' Interest in Finance."

Mr. Grosvenor's observations on the governor of Illinois were called forth by the latter's speech last week in which he charged that Mr. Bryan had been defeated by fraud and based his charge particularly on the enormous increase of the vote in Ohio, where, he alleged, 90,000 votes were illegally cast. Mr. Grosvenor was very personal in his allusions to Mr. Altgeld, laying at his door much grave responsibility for the result of the election. He declared that an appeal on the stump against Altgeldism never failed to arouse the populace where all else failed. He then analyzed the Ohio vote and explained the cause of its increase calling attention to the fact that the Democratic vote in the state had increased proportionately much more than the Republicans.

Mr. De Armond replied very briefly to Mr. Grosvenor, but it was his subsequent attack on Secretary Morton which created the sensation. Mr. De Armond is a Democrat, an ardent advocate of silver, and therefore his attack on a Democratic cabinet official, who has been most active on the gold side of the controversy, excited less surprise than it otherwise would have done.

Among the bills passed was one to pension Mary A. Viel, widow of Major W. D. Sanger, Thirty-fifth Illinois infantry, at the rate of $25 per month.

A number of amendments to the Indian appropriation bill were made before it passed. The salaries and expenses of the Dawes commission was reduced from $50,000 to $43,000. The items appropriating $25,000 for the irrigation lands of the Southern Utes in Utah and $10,000 for the erection of a bridge across the Big Wine river on the Shoshone reservation, in Wyoming, were stricken out on points of order.

Amendments to impose a fine of $100 or imprisonment for 30 days upon any one who took from the public lands aboriginal antiquities; to require Indian agents to make semi-annual detailed statements of all moneys passing through their hands; placing the children of Indian women who had married white men on an equal footing with other members of the tribe in the matter of inheriting tribal property and rights, were adopted.

On a point of order made by Mr. Cannon, the last 16 pages of the bill to ratify the treaties with the Shoshones and Arapahoes of Wyoming, made April 22, 1896, and the Turtle Mountain band of Chippewas in North Dakota, made Oct. 22, 1892, were stricken out.

The item to remove all restrictions existing against the leasing, sale or conveyance of the allotted lands of the Puyallup Indians in Pierce county, Washington, was ruled out.

An amendment offered by Mr. Mondell (Rep., Wyo.) to appropriate $3,000 for the repair of a bridge across the Wind river in Wyoming, was adopted. At 5:10 p. m. the house adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The open session of the senate was comparatively brief yesterday, as more than half the day was spent behind closed doors. During the open session the bill for an international monetary conference was debated, Mr. Chandler speaking in favor of it and Mr. Stewart of Nevada against.

The Nicaragua canal bill and the bankruptcy bill were before the senate for a short time, but no progress was made on either of them.

Early in the day a lively debate occurred over Mr. Allen's resolution questioning the president's right to foreclose against the Pacific railroads.

GAS EXPLOSION IN A MINE.

Eleven Men Severely Burned, One of Them Fatally.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Jan. 29.—By an explosion in a coal mine at Foster, 15 miles south, 11 men have been severely burned, one of them fatally. The mine officials claim that the explosion was the result of natural phenomena; that air of extreme low temperature met the warm gaseous air of the mine when the shaft was suddenly opened and formed gas, which ignited from the lamps of the miners, who were just leaving work temporarily.

The following were injured: Louis Folger, fatally; Robert Williams, John Farrell, C. G. Anderson, David Scott and two sons, Thomas Connor, William Morgan, John Pierson. Nearly all the injured have families. The damage to the mine is slight.

Indications.

Fair weather, preceded by light snow on the lake; not so cold; west winds.
